HOUSE PASSES IMMIGRATION BILL OVER WILSON'S VETO

Washington, Feb. 2.—Immigration bill containing literacy test clause was passed in house late yesterday over President Wilson's veto by vote of 286 to 108. Party lines were ignored.

Action will go up to senate today, where bill was passed originally by 64 to 7.

Has been 20-year fight to establish this literacy test. Four times it has been vetoed by the White House.
